

Professor Mieczyslaw Litwin, pediatrician, nephrologist and hypertensiologist from Dept. of Nephrology and Arterial Hypertension, The Children's Memorial Health Institute in Warsaw, Poland. His main clinical and research area is chronic kidney disease, arterial hypertension and metabolic abnormalities in primary hypertension. The other field of interest are studies on determinants of development and regression of target organ damage in hypertensive children and adolescents.